

Celina Fire Department

Is Currently Accepting Applications

Established 1912

The Celina Fire Department is currently accepting applications for Volunteer Firefighters.

WHY CFD???

Become a member of our team and have the opportunity to become integrated within our department. As a volunteer you will have the chance to gain the experience and training needed to respond to a variety of emergency calls! Put your training to use! We will pay to maintain your Fire and EMS certifications along with all necessary continuing education.

Apply and come join a progressive and growing fire department and EMS system that takes great pride in not only its department but also its community. Day and Shift spots available. No residency requirements.

Minimum Requirements:

Must be at least 18 years old
TCFP/SFFMA certified Firefighter and/or TDHS EMT-Basic OR Candidates currently enrolled in Fire or EMT school.

All candidates will have to fill out an application, take a physical agility test, have an oral interview, and successfully complete a background check/drug screen.
